We Rise by Lifting Others Up

A quote that may describe 2020 is "The strongest people make time to help others, even if they are struggling with their own personal problems." This was certainly proven true in the Four County Community Foundation service area. Many families and businesses have experienced tremendous loss during the 2020 coronavirus pandemic. Despite overwhelming challenges, generous community members came forward with over $18,000 in donations which enabled us to increase our support of families and non-profits during the pandemic. Grants were issued outside of our traditional application process to quickly address the immediate needs of food pantries and shelters.

Let's hope that the devastation of the pandemic slows dramatically in 2021. Since the negative impacts of 2020 will undoubtedly live on well beyond any publicly available vaccine, it is our deepest hope that we continue to see an outpouring of generosity in both action and charitable giving. Lost businesses, compromised educational opportunities, forgone career opportunities, personal financial losses, and missed family gatherings cannot easily be replaced. However, in the midst of great loss around us, those who are in a position to give others a "hand up" can do so by partnering with the Foundation. This year has been a perfect example of how people give even when they may be hurting, and how our Foundation can be responsive and flexible in times of need. Together we can make a difference. We appreciate your continued support.

Your Voice – Our Vision

In a recent survey, Four County Community Foundation asked local residents to share what they loved about their community. As a public charity that grants to nonprofit organizations and schools, the Foundation was also interested to hear about what they did not like. Ultimately, we wanted to identify where we could best spend our resources in order to make the greatest impact. What we discovered may surprise you. Our needs assessment survey revealed four main areas of need. We then designed a strategy for each:

“Beyond the Bell” addresses the need for youth activities for school-aged children outside of the regular school day. Activities such as clubs, sports, tutoring, health and nutrition, fitness, and robotics will be a priority. Four County Community Foundation is committed to serving the needs of our children and making a positive difference in their young lives.

“Your Story Matters” addresses the mental health needs of all ages in the communities we serve. Four County Community Foundation will direct resources towards the prevention of suicide, depression, drug abuse, and bullying. We will also support efforts to help those already suffering from addiction, depression, and other mental health issues.

“Let’s Go Places” addresses the transportation needs of our senior citizens, our friends with disabilities or special needs, and our neighbors who may be facing financial challenges and hardships. Four County Community Foundation is dedicated to helping those who need it most.

“Stronger Together” addresses the need for small business development and mentorship. Four County Community Foundation supports programs and workshops that foster and support leadership, collaboration, and the entrepreneurial spirit.

As we consider grant applications during the coming months, these strategies and initiatives will be our focus. Grantees that address these needs with creative and innovative programs or projects will be given priority. We welcome your support as we seek to make a positive impact on our community.

New Funds

The Ruth M. & Mary Margaret Farley Scholarship Fund will benefit college-bound graduates of Almont High School. The Farley sisters grew up on their family farm, which was located between Almont and Imlay City. Margaret was a school teacher, beginning at the one-room Rider School, and continuing her career at Almont Elementary School. Ruth began working as the Almont Superintendent's secretary and later as a clerk for Detroit Edison. Both sisters retired from their career work in the late 1970s, but continued to live on the Farley Farm for a few more years.

The Ken & Marlene Brown Scholarship Fund was created by their children in memory of Ken and Marlene's life-long service to others. The Browns were educators who inspired family, friends, and students with their strength of character, compassion, and wisdom.

The Gary K. Jeffery Memorial Scholarship Fund honors 1967 Memphis High School graduate, Gary Jeffery. Gary served with the US Navy and was an educator, basketball coach, and computer technologist who enjoyed sailing, photography, gardening, and golf.

The John & Susan Zwiernik Scholarship Fund was established by the desire of two retired educators to assist Capac-area students as they continue their education. John and Susan join a generous family of Capac citizens who have created scholarship funds for the young people of their community.

The Gladys McLean Warner & John Rodney Warner Scholarship Fund was created by Imlay City Schools Alumni Association members, Gladys and Rod Warner to benefit Imlay City High School seniors. This is the fourth fund built by the many generous and thoughtful members of the alumni association.

Ruth and Margaret Farley

The Oxford Public Library Endowment Fund benefits the Oxford Public Library and will provide an annual source of revenue to support the library in their mission to provide access to the world, enrich the community, and promote lifelong learning and enjoyment.

The Dennis Family Fund was established by a grateful family who appreciates the value of living, working, and raising a family in the Imlay City area. The Dennis Family Fund will give back to the community that has benefitted them in so many ways.

The Gestalt Pastoral Care Fund exists to ensure that the powerful healing ministry of Gestalt Pastoral Care is faithfully delivered to future generations. Rooted in the healing ministry of Jesus, Gestalt Pastoral Care uses gestalt perspectives to support persons as they discover and respond to God's vision for their wholeness. The mission of Gestalt Pastoral Care Associates, Inc. is to preserve the integrity of this ministry, extend its reach, and provide a sound financial foundation for its continued future.

American Tree – Brzozowski Family Fund was created to address a broad range of future projects in the area served by Four County Community Foundation. Long-time business owners, John and Connie Brzozowski, were inspired by the many civic-minded individuals they knew, many of whom had strong connections to the Foundation. John joined the Foundation's Board of Trustees and served for ten years, functioning as Board Chairperson during his final three years. After John reached his term limits, Connie began her duties as a trustee and is currently in her second year. By endowing the American Tree – Brzozowski Family Fund, John and Connie have found a gratifying way to give back to the community where they live, work, and raised their family.

The Currier House

In the early 1840s, an enterprising New Englander from Vermont moved to frontier Michigan. Frederick P. Currier was innovative and successful in several industries such as farming, lumbering, and the manufacturing of starch, furnaces, and farm implements. It was in the Village of Almont that Frederick and Mary Currier built their unique octagon home in 1854. The house has eight consecutively-angled exterior walls and five interior octagonal rooms. This interior design with ample windows was theorized to offer health advantages from strong lighting and ventilation as well as energy efficiencies. Significant exterior and interior design features remain intact today.

This beautiful structure was acquired in 2002 and became the site for Four County Community Foundation to do its work of serving the community. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is registered as a Michigan Historical Site and, as such, current remodeling is sensitive to the historical integrity of the home. We are in Phase I of renovations, primarily on our wraparound porch. Future phases will involve cupola renovation and repair to the original plaster ceilings.

We welcome you to visit and take a tour of the Currier House which has become the home Four County Community Foundation! We also welcome donations to our "Home" fund to preserve this local treasure.

The Youth Advisory Committee stayed busy throughout the summer helping with the Foundation's distribution of dairy and produce boxes at Imlay City High School. The food boxes were given to local food pantries as well as individuals and families.

YAC members came out in force to upgrade the landscape in front of the Foundation office in Almont. In one morning the students removed old shrubs and planted two dozen new roses, hydrangeas, and daylilies. Thanks American Tree, for supplying the new plants!

This year, YAC members distributed a large collection of children's books related to philanthropy and giving. The books were delivered to our area elementary schools. YAC members read some of the books to students and even participated in lessons related to the story, bringing to life their mission of supporting literacy and philanthropy. Thanks YAC, you are AWESOME!

Mission Statement

Four County Community Foundation is committed to serving the current and emerging needs of our local community, continuing the tradition of philanthropy begun generations ago. The Foundation is dedicated to bringing together human and financial resources to support progressive ideas in education, health, community, youth, and adult programs. The Foundation provides a secure, flexible vehicle for individuals, families, foundations, and organizations to positively impact the quality of life in our community. The Foundation recognizes that, in order to meet its commitments to the community it serves, it must seek growth through its permanent endowment funds from a wide range of donors.

Legacy Society

We gratefully recognize those who ensure a legacy to the Foundation by planning their future gifts. The following people are an encouragement to others to remember Four County Community Foundation in their charitable plans.
